

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TABLE HOSTS ANNOUNCED FOR 2nd ANNUAL LET'S TALK NASHVILLE SEPTEMBER 10th - 6pm - Hutton Hotel

Nashville, Tenn. (August 6, 2015) – The T.J. Martell Foundation is proud to confirm guest "Table Hosts" for "Let's Talk Nashville," on Sept 10th at the Hutton Hotel. Founded by Ben Jumper, CEO of Soundcheck and Crew One Productions and longtime T.J. Martell Foundation board member, "Let's Talk Nashville" provides a rare opportunity to dine and engage in conversation with some of Nashville's most interesting and influential people in sports, music and business. Proceeds will help fund innovative medical research focused on finding cures for leukemia, cancer and AIDS.

Table sponsors, along with their invited guests will have the opportunity to select which Table Hosts they are interested in sitting with. Over a fine dinner, guests will have the opportunity to learn about their Table Host's area of expertise and exchange thoughts about current and future trends in their field.

"A couple of years ago I was asked to be a table host at a fundraising event in Austin, Texas called Engaging Conversations. That evening turned out to be one of the most amazing and truly engaging fundraisers I've attended. I am very proud to have introduced this concept to the Nashville community as I feel conversation is important but sadly, a dying art form," says Ben Jumper.

Confirmed Table Hosts thus far include:
